

Story Time with Colyton Primary School

Today a group of year five students from Colyton primary school attended the nursery to read to the children. This was to celebrate world book week. The children all really enjoyed this, and we look forward to doing it again.

