

Our "word gap" approach at colyton Caterpillars

Each week, we look at a new story, and focus on words, expressive language, core words, extension words and technical words.

This is a good way to expand language, promote communication and understanding of literature.

We provide home learning packs and books to share at home. We also encourage our children to visit their local library.

<https://www.devonlibraries.org.uk/web/arena/colytonlibrary>