

Forest school with Bea

The children loved taking part in this week's forest school session, they went on a sensory walk and found some wild garlic, which they brought back to Caterpillars and used to make some garlic butter! Yummy!

